

Business Requirements

The client is a leading provider of vehicle and driver safety and security services provider. They wanted to provide remote experience to customers where they can control and monitor their cars securely from their own smart phones interfaced with integrated car security system.

Our Solution

- ❑ Provided a seamless integration of mobile application and vehicle head unit which has the preparatory security system build in, with restful API's
- ❑ Included features are –
 - Check fuel level, remote locking and unlocking, service maintenance alerts, schedule appointments
 - Set destinations directly to the vehicle navigation system, search and receive useful feature guide
 - Quick Tips Messages about the car on demand
 - Remotely flash lights to locate the car when the key fob is out of range, Easily make Assist Calls to Vendor Client Relations
 - Receive Alerts when the car is disturbed

Benefits

- System rendered a superiors remote access experience and sense of security for end users

Technology Stack

Android, Android Studio, Objective-C, Xcode, RESTful API with preparatory security system